

No Progress Seen As Ford Talks Continue

Can't Decide On Arbitrator To Settle Strike

Detroit, May 28—(AP)—Delayed by the late arrival of union representatives, negotiations to end the 24-day Ford strike got underway again tonight.

The weary bargainers, who had only a few hours sleep after an all-night session, returned to the conference table about 8:30 p.m. (CDT).

Optimism was mixed with gloom as the peace talks resumed their marathon course.

Only two points remained to be settled to end the dispute that has idled 108,000 Ford Motor Co. workers.

Particularly Thorny

One, however, was particularly thorny. It involved the selection of an arbitrator, acceptable both to Ford and the CIO-United Auto Workers, to hand down a verdict on the dispute.

The other, involving the disciplining of 35 Ford workers after the strike began, was seen as a lesser obstacle. Here, too, however, both Ford and union were far apart.

Earlier today the feeling was general that an end to the strike was imminent. Working through a grinding 13-hour session, negotiators reached agreement on the main issue in the strike. They agreed to arbitrate.

But at the end of the night-long session, chief Ford negotiator, John S. Bugas, and UAW President Walter Reuther told reporters who had kept vigil throughout the night that the talks were snagged.

Viat Gloomy

Federal Mediator Arthur Viat was gloomy. "The situation looks hopeless at this time," he said, "but maybe there will be a chance by to-night."

Bugas said Ford was taking this position: Let's try for 72 hours to name an arbitrator. If we fail, then let's turn the matter over to Dr. Harry Shulman, the Ford-UAW labor umpire. Bugas insisted, too, that Ford wanted an industrial engineer to arbitrate the "speedup" issue.

Reuther, on the other hand, said the UAW wanted to try for 72 hours and then turn the naming of an arbitrator over to President Truman.

Michigan Governor G. Mennen Williams or Cyrus Ching, chief of the Federal Mediation Service.

Reuther said that on those terms the UAW would go back to work immediately, leaving the appointment of an arbitrator to follow.

While the talks were snagged on this point, agreement had been reached on the big issue: the principle of arbitration. Even the exact wording was decided on.

Seven Americans Held Hostage By Bolivian Miners

La Paz, Bolivia, May 28—(AP)—Seven American engineers and one Argentine today were held as hostages by 2,000 striking tin mine workers protesting the arrest and deportation of a mine union official.

The Americans, held at the Siglo Veinte tin mine in the Catavi region about 200 miles southeast of La Paz, were identified as Wilbur J. Cook, Floyd W. Erickson, Joseph G. Besette, T. J. O'Connor, Patrick Greene, Richard D. Elette, and T. R. Woods-Smith.

A Bolivian army commander at Catavi was reported tonight to be negotiating the release of the hostages. Some were reported beaten while resisting.

Officials of the Patino Mines and Enterprises Consolidated, Inc., which owns the Catavi mines, notified James Espry, U. S. charge d'affaires in La Paz, of the seizure of the Americans.

In a cleanup of what the government called "political agitators," the army and national carabinieri (military police) early yesterday began a nationwide series of arrests and deportations.

ELECTED HEAD OF HIGH TWELVE CLUBS

Oak Park, Ill., May 28—(AP)—Paul G. Armstrong, state director of selective service and a Chicagoan, today was elected president of Illinois' High Twelve Clubs, service branch of the Masons.

Other officers chosen at the state convention are:

Grover Hoff, Springfield. James Gram, East St. Louis. and Brick Ekstrom, Rockford. First, L. C. Huebner, Quincy, international representative; George Dramstadter, Belleville, secretary; and V. W. Huston, Quincy, treasurer.

The Lincoln club headed by Ken Goodrich of the Lincoln Courier was given the president's award for having the outstanding service program of the year.

Russian Zone Germans Will Set Up Republic

Berlin, May 28—(AP)—Communist-controlled delegates from the Soviet zone converged on this strike-harassed city tonight to set up their own German republic.

Formation of the regime will serve the Russians at the Big Four conference in Paris as a bargaining point and rival to the republic being established by the western zones at Bonn.

The east zone people's congress will open here tomorrow, while Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky makes his study in Paris of the proposal by the United States, Britain and France for a federal government for all Germany based on the Bonn constitution.

The 2,000 delegates, picked in a one-state election two weeks ago, which was marked by a surprising, one-third "no" vote, expect to approve the Soviet zone version of a republican constitution Monday.

There are 20,000,000 Germans in the Soviet zone; 45,000,000 in the western zones.

Wearing shabby clothes and carrying cardboard suitcases, they poured into the city by automobile and by the Soviet rail lines not affected by the west Berlin railwaymen's strike.

The communist party newspaper Neues Deutschland said:

"Here millions of Germans are contributing the German share to a permanent world peace. There (presumably meaning in west Berlin) those who have been left behind by Gen. Clay are still trying to make Berlin their war."

Gen. Clay retired as U. S. military governor May 15.

The Neues Deutschland's war line apparently referred to the railway strike, now in its eighth day. The 12,000 strikers, want the Russian-controlled German state railway system to pay them in west marks instead of the less valuable Soviet zone east marks. They also seek other concessions.

The American, British and French military governments—often accused of imperialism—have expelled communist strike breakers and east zone railway police and refused to break up the strike, even though it has halted rail traffic between Berlin and the west zones.

Changeover To Red Policies Confuses Shanghai Chinese

Shanghai, May 28—(AP)—The myriad phases of the political changeover caused considerable confusion in Shanghai today.

It appeared that several days must elapse before anyone would know how life in this great city would be changed under the communists, who were having no easy job themselves.

(The communist radio in Peking announced that a military control committee had been established for Shanghai, with Gen. Chen Yi as chairman. Chen commands the third field army, which took Shanghai from the Chinese nationalists.)

The new regime faces a critical situation unless more fuel oil can be obtained quickly. The Shanghai power company has fuel for only 10 more days. If it shuts down, virtually every industry in the city will stop.

One industrialist remarked, "The United States might be smart to put a tanker in here on some emergency or long-term credit basis. From a hard-headed business view it would be a good risk and might be the spearhead for resumption of trade and shipping."

Foreign airlines and both foreign and domestic shipping companies were trying to locate the proper communist authorities to negotiate quick resumption of service.

Sen. Hickenlooper Says He Will Prove AEC Is Mismanaged

Washington, May 28—(AP)—Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) said today he wants to "confront" Chairman David E. Lilienthal of the Atomic Energy Commission at a public hearing Wednesday with evidence backing his charge of mismanagement.

In a formal statement, the Iowa senator said he is "prepared to produce the proof" to support his demand that Lilienthal resign.

On May 22, Hickenlooper asserted the AEC chairman was guilty of "incredible mismanagement" of the atomic project. He hit at the disappearance of a small quantity of uranium-235 from an atomic laboratory, and at the appointment of at least one communist to an AEC fellowship.

"My action was taken after due consideration and long observation of the policies of the commission, as directed by Chairman Lilienthal," Hickenlooper said.

"My responsibilities to my office and to the American people demand that I bring this vital matter to a head now."

"I have made these charges on my own responsibility. I am prepared to produce proof. I will go before the joint atomic energy committee on Tuesday of next week and request that Mr. Lilienthal be called before the committee in public hearings beginning Wednesday morning so that I may confront him with my evidence."

Weighty Decisions May Be Made By Legislature Soon

Springfield, Ill., May 28—(AP)—Weighty decisions affecting vital parts of Governor Stevenson's legislative program may be made next week by the Illinois General Assembly.

High on the list of issues slated for action by either the House or Senate are proposals on the sales tax, highways and state police.

Important money matters hinge on the fate of bills to broaden the two percent sales tax base. The governor is banking on this legislation for $30,000,000 in new revenue during the next two years.

The bills, which have drawn heavy fire from manufacturers, contractors and printers, are ready for a passage roll call in the House.

Stevenson is anxious for early acceptance or rejection. If the bills fail, his spokesmen say, the governor will have to trim major spending recommendations—probably including the $40,000,000 he suggested for city aid.

CHANDLERVILLE MAN TO WED OREGON GIRL

Chandlerville—An announcement has been received here of the engagement of Miss Thora Alvina Manlove of Portland, Ore., to Virginia Arnold Baldwin, formerly of Chandlerville. The wedding will take place June 6 in Portland.

The couple will visit friends and relatives in the city on their wedding trip.

Senate Foreign Aid Vote Will Test Economy Drive

Washington, May 28—(AP)—Economic advocates said today the showdown test of whether congress is going to cut expenses probably will come in Senate action on the $5,617,000,000 foreign aid bill.

Senator Russell (D-Ga.), who is drafting a bill to clip up to 10 percent off cash outlays for the year beginning July 1, told a reporter that if the overseas aid fund isn't cut he probably will drop his plan.

"If the appropriations for the Economic Cooperation Administration can't be reduced, then the whole economy drive is going to collapse," he predicted.

"We can't expect departments at home to take reductions if we can't cut the funds to be spent abroad. I wouldn't be anxious to cut others if that fund is sacrosanct."

Similarly, Senator Taft of Ohio, chairman of the GOP policy committee, said he thinks any "real savings" will have to come out of the ECA and military appropriations.

The Ohioan said he will support a 10 percent cut in the foreign aid proposal. He added that he won't have any idea until hearings are held how much the military funds can be reduced.

Taft agreed with Russell that the House didn't make much of a showing for economy when it lopped $704,730,000 off the amount President Truman requested for the ECA, Greece-Turkey aid and for government relief in the occupied areas of Germany, Austria and Japan.

Offsetting this surface saving, the House agreed that the remaining money could be spent within 13 months, instead of the 15 months period proposed by the president.

Robert E. Doherty, President Of CIT, Will Retire Soon

Pittsburgh, May 28—(AP)—Dr. Robert E. Doherty, president of Carnegie Institute of Technology, announced today he will retire July 1, 1950.

His announcement came as a surprise. He said he wished more time to put in a book he had been "dabbling" in oils for years. His self-portrait won a first prize at an artists' show here in 1944.

Dr. Doherty observed his 64th birthday last Jan. 22. He became president of Carnegie Tech in 1936, coming here from Yale university where he was dean of the School of Engineering.

Carnegie Tech quit "big time" football shortly after Dr. Doherty assumed office. The president said frankly he believed "big time" football was too expensive.

Dr. Doherty is a native of Clay City, Ill. Several years after his graduation from the University of Illinois he became designing engineer for alternating current machinery manufactured by General Electric Corp. He also served as assistant to Dr. C. P. Steinmetz, GE's "wizard."

He joined Yale's faculty in 1931, becoming dean of the engineering school three years later.

President Embarks On 3-Day Cruise On Williamsburg

Washington, May 28—(AP)—President Truman cruised on the yacht Williamsburg toward Patuxent, Md., in the lower Chesapeake Bay, today after an early morning departure from Blakistone Island in the Potomac river.

Mr. Truman is on a three-day trip. He left late yesterday and will return Monday evening.

The Williamsburg will anchor off Patuxent tonight and then go to Annapolis where the president and his party will go ashore for Sunday services in the naval academy chapel.

The president was up at 6 a.m. E.S.T. today and after a tour of the deck in a 53 degree temperature, had breakfast, and was off for Patuxent at 7:45.

A message from the Williamsburg said Mr. Truman had ordered war surplus articles sent to the relief of tornado victims at Cape Girardeau, Mo. He also allocated $15,000 of emergency funds to be spent there by the federal works agency's bureau of community facilities.

Roodhouse Schools Report Vacancies

Roodhouse—Superintendent Gen. W. Lowe has announced two teaching vacancies in the Roodhouse public schools.

A teacher of English and girls physical education is needed in the junior high; a social science and commerce instructor, qualified to assist in coaching, is needed at the high school.

All teachers in the Roodhouse schools have been tendered contracts for another year with the exception of two who were not applicants: John Robert Lewis and William Lewis.

The art of making openings in the skull-repanning was known to the ancients.

Propose Bonn Charter Be Law Of All Reich

Cedar Rapids, Ia., May 28—(AP)—Dr. Robert C. Rutledge, Jr., tonight was convicted of second degree murder of the slaying of Byron C. Hattman, alleged sealer of Rutledge's wife.

The verdict was returned in the courtroom at 8:11 p.m. (CST).

The jury had deliberated 3 hours and 41 minutes with an hour out for dinner.

Second degree murder carries a sentence of 10 years to life imprisonment. The determination of sentence will be up to District Judge J. E. Heisterman.

The state had asked for a verdict of first degree murder which carries a sentence of death by hanging or life imprisonment.

The defense had asked for immediate and complete freedom for the 28-year-old pediatrician.

Judge Heisterman announced that the sentence would be pronounced within 30 days.

Dr. Rutledge was charged with stabbing Hattman to death in a Cedar Rapids hotel room last Dec. 14 during a bloody fight.

The young doctor's face was strained with emotion as he left the courtroom to a reception of photographers' flashbulbs.

The courtroom was filled when the verdict was returned. Residents of Cedar Rapids assembled quickly at the courthouse upon hearing radio news casts that the jury had reached a decision at 7:27 p.m.

When the verdict was read Dr. Rutledge sat alone at the side of Sheriff J. L. Smith. A man from the courtroom was his blond, willow wife, Sydney, 23, his father and stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Rutledge, Sr., of Houston, Tex., and his parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Goodrich, of Hannibal, Mo.

Jury Foreman Archie Farmer said the jury took four ballots. On the first, he said, one juror was for a verdict of first degree murder, four were for manslaughter, and seven for second degree murder.

On the second ballot seven favored a verdict of second degree murder, two first degree murder, and three manslaughter.

On the third ballot, Farmer continued, the vote was 11 for second degree murder and one for first degree.

Farmer said one ballot was taken before the jury went to dinner and three after they returned.

Second degree murder under Iowa law is murder without premeditation.

Truman Asks All To Pray For Peace On Memorial Day

By The Associated Press

Americans are urged by President Truman to pray for permanent peace at Memorial Day observances tomorrow (Monday) as they bow in tribute to the dead of the nation's wars.

From famed Arlington cemetery near Washington, where many of America's heroes lie, to little rural churchyards all over the country, tiny flags will fly and graves will be laden with flowers on the 81st annual Memorial Day.

The long holiday week-end, traditional beginning of the summer season, also brings the opening of many resorts.

Travel arteries were crowded Friday and yesterday, and returning throngs are expected to bring peak loads tomorrow.

In a proclamation, Mr. Truman called on the nation to observe Memorial Day with a nationwide prayer for peace.

"This sacred day is a fitting occasion on which the people of our nation, all of whom, directly or indirectly, have been benefitted by war's terrible toll, may appeal to almighty God for help in turning the steps of the world to the paths of permanent peace," the proclamation said.

Charge Man Bribed Girl Not To Talk In Assault Case

Chicago, May 28—(AP)—A union official was charged today with obstructing justice by paying $100 to keep a young woman from testifying in an assault case.

A warrant was issued against James Harrison, financial secretary of Local 6, CIO United Auto Workers. The local represents employees at the Melrose Park plant of the International Harvester company.

Nathan Kinnally, assistant state's attorney, accused Harrison of giving the money to Miss Dolores Kubal, 19, of suburban Berwyn.

Three youths are charged with assaulting Miss Kubal in an automobile. Police said she fled screaming and with most of her clothing torn off.

The charges against the three were continued until June 10 when Miss Kubal failed to appear Friday at a hearing before Police Magistrate Frank Pavlek in Berwyn.

Kinnally said Harrison gave the money to Miss Kubal and also offered her an airplane ticket and a job in California to keep her from testifying against the youths.

Chief Asks State Police Be Taken Out Of Politics

Springfield, Ill., May 28—(AP)—State Police Chief Harry Curtis today urged legislative approval of Governor Stevenson's plan to remove state police from politics. He said it would save thousands of dollars.

"Under political control," Curtis said, "the department has had 100 percent turnover with each change in administration."

Curtis said it is "almost impossible to obtain high class recruits because of the knowledge appointments are temporary."

With each change, he added, taxpayers "suffer an additional financial load as new recruits are trained and xxx the citizens also suffer from a low quality of police service from inexperienced men."

The legislation is pending in the Illinois House. It proposes an equal number of democrats and republicans on the 500 man force by Jan. 1, 1951. After that, no policeman could be demoted or removed without a hearing by a police merit board.

Mae Murray Elects Two New Trustees

William L. Fay, Jacksonville attorney, and Thomas E. Lueg, Evans-ton, treasurer of the Finance and World Service division of the Methodist church were elected trustees of Mae Murray college as of the class of 1953.

They have taken the place of the late Harry M. Andre and of Dr. Albert H. Doherty, who resigned.

Rutledge Convicted Of 2nd Degree Murder

Cedar Rapids, Ia., May 28—(AP)—Dr. Robert C. Rutledge, Jr., tonight was convicted of second degree murder of the slaying of Byron C. Hattman, alleged sealer of Rutledge's wife.

The verdict was returned in the courtroom at 8:11 p.m. (CST).

Say Recent Moves In Cold War May Decide Future

Washington, May 28—(AP)—American officials said today that major cold war developments of the past week probably would have a vital bearing on the balance of East-West forces in the months immediately ahead.

Four events earlier in the week were topped off today by the western proposal at the Paris foreign ministers' meeting that Russia accept the West German Bonn constitution as a basis for unifying all of Germany.

This was by far the boldest stand that the West had yet taken in Big Four negotiations on Germany, since it appeared to leave little if any ground for important compromise.

Particular interest was shown here in the Russian handling of the railway strike in Berlin. Responsible authorities suggested that the appearance of Soviet-backed German communist police as strikebreakers seemed to be somewhat out of keeping with Russian past efforts to win world support of workmen.

2nd Navy 'Viking' Rocket Will Try For Altitude Mark

Washington, May 28—(AP)—The navy is getting ready to punch another hole in the sky with a second "Viking" rocket, an improved version of the one fired early this month from the New Mexico proving grounds.

It announced today the rocket is being assembled at the Baltimore plant of Glenn L. Martin company. It will be fired at White Sands, N. M., when the government experiments with high altitude flights of various type rockets.

The first Viking, fired May 3, reached an altitude of 51 miles and a speed of 2,350 miles an hour.

The navy said a total of 10 Vikings will be made and launched under its program "aimed toward development of an American high altitude rocket program that will exceed the German V-2 in performance."

Sinclair Unit Of Home Bureau Names Committees

Arrangement committees for several approaching social events were appointed by Mrs. Roy Shortridge, unit chairman, at the Friday afternoon meeting of the Sinclair Home Bureau unit in the home of Mrs. Joe Turner.

The committees will plan the District tea and a program for the entertainment of the Berea Home Bureau unit, who will be guests of the Sinclair unit at Hebron church in June.

During the afternoon Mrs. Lester Martin recounted her trip to Holland, Mich., recently for the tulip festival. The major lesson was given on "Care and Abuse of the Eye" by Mrs. Harold Swain and Mrs. Albert Swain. "Travel Etiquette," the minor lesson, was presented by Mrs. J. E. Long.

Mrs. George Hubbs conducted two contests in the social hour.

U.S. Holiday Death Toll Reaches 58 Saturday Night

By The Associated Press

The nation's holiday death toll rose to 58 last (Saturday) night. More than three-fourths of the victims died in traffic accidents.

Besides the 46 killed on highways, five persons drowned and seven deaths were attributed to miscellaneous causes.

With the long week-end barely 36 hours old, California suffered the heaviest loss with nine dead. Seven lost their lives in road accidents. Two men were killed near Oxnard when their light plane crashed during a fishing trip.

Illinois and North Carolina, each with seven dead, were in second place. All the North Carolina victims were killed in one accident, a collision on slippery pavement near Shalotte.

America's celebration of Memorial Day will cost a total of 215 lives, the National Safety Council has predicted.

The dead by states, listing the causes as traffic, drowning and miscellaneous in that order:

California, 7-0-2; Connecticut, 0-1-1; Georgia, 1-0-0; Illinois, 5-1-1; Iowa, 2-1-0; Kansas, 2-0-0; Michigan, 5-0-0; Minnesota, 2-0-0; Missouri, 0-0-1; New Jersey, 2-0-0; New York, 3-1-1; North Carolina, 7-0-0; Ohio, 5-0-1; Pennsylvania, 4-0-0; Vermont, 1-0-0; Wisconsin, 0-1-0.

UMW Paper Hints Lewis Is Striving For One Big Pact

Washington, May 28—(AP)—The United Mine Workers Journal hinted today that John L. Lewis is striving for a nationwide contract and may be using the separate talks with southern coal operators as a bargaining lure.

Lewis agreed to meet with the Southern Coal Producers association at Blue Field, West Va., when President Joseph E. Moody served notice the contract would be terminated June 30. That was merely fulfilling the miners' obligation to bargain under the Taft-Hartley act.

The Journal said today:

"While the UMW" formally accepted the SCPA request for negotiations and suggested Bluefield as the site for them, plans for talks with the northern and outlying operators' associations have not been announced."

"Indications are that the negotiations this year may require some time before the situation among the various operators' groups fully clarifies itself."

20 NAPLES PUPILS VISIT JACKSONVILLE

Naples—The 20 pupils of the Naples grade school, accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Luella Vandeventer, and Mrs. Lena Adkins, enjoyed a tour of Jacksonville Friday.

After spending the morning at Nichols Park, with a wiener roast at noon, they visited the fire department and other spots of interest.

The trip was made in the school bus.

Russia Will Study Plan Until Monday

Paris, May 28—(AP)—The three western powers proposed today to rub out all military government for Germany and open the door for Russia's zone to join a central federal German government under the Bonn constitution.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky indicated he considered the plan one-sided and unacceptable, but asked for time to study it until Monday.

Opening the western bag of proposals for the first time, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman presented the English and French texts of a plan for Germany to the four-power foreign ministers' council at its sixth session.

Given Final Touches

Final touches to the document were given at a two-hour meeting of the two foreign ministers and U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson earlier in the day.

The plan laid down as principles for the merger of East and West Germany that Russia must stop political activity by policemen in her zone, give up the veto in Germany except in unusual cases and agree to drastic limitations to her reparations claims on the country.

For eastern Germany to join the west, the three powers said, Russia must grant these freedoms to her Germans: freedom of person and movement, of assembly, speech, press and radio, freedom for all democratic political parties and for elections, freedom from arbitrary arrest and an independent judiciary.

The plan was simple in language but loaded with diplomatic dynamite.

Says It Is West Plot

Vishinsky, who had expected some such plan, already has described the proposal to cover east Germany with the Bonn constitution as a western plot to get all Germany "in the bag."

The proposal is almost directly counter to the ideas advanced earlier this week by Vishinsky that the four powers reinstate the authority of the Allied Control Council which broke down under the impact of Soviet vetoes. He also wanted a central German authority to deal with subjects passed on to it by unanimous action of the control council.

In presenting the western suggestions, Bevin said the plan was offered in good faith and not with the intention of organizing Germany against Russia.

Report Infirmary Deaths Caused By Inadequate Laws

Port Wayne, Ind., May 28—(AP)—Failure of the General Assembly to pass adequate county infirmary laws was cited by the Allen county grand jury as it reported on the death of 30 patients in 34 days at the county infirmary.

The jury said last night there was "incompetent supervision" at the infirmary. It said, "We find that it is now evident that the services of a practical farmer are not adequate to meet the needs of the institutions as it now exists." (Indiana law stipulates that county infirmary superintendents be "practical farmers.")

The report criticized the legislature for failure to require adequate qualifications for heads of county infirmaries.

It said that if the present law is not so framed that competent superintendents can be obtained, "then that law should be changed so that an individual could be obtained who is acquainted with the need of an institution of this kind and who can adequately install a program which would greatly improve the welfare of the individuals therein."

The jury exonerated Dr. Noah Zehr, infirmary physician, from any responsibility for the deaths which resulted in calling the investigation.

DIES OF BURNS

Kewanee, Ill., May 28—(AP)—Carl R. Lundgren, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lundgren of Hickory Grove, Bureau county, died today from burns suffered when a can of gasoline exploded.

The accident occurred as young Lundgren was burning weeds at his family's farm.

The man who succeeded the late Robert W. Woolston as superintendent at I.S.B. in 1947, Leo J. Flood, is a well known Jacksonville resident and a veteran grade and high school instructor at that institution, having taught there since 1911. He is a graduate of Routt college and received his A.B. degree from Illinois college. He has also studied at Illinois State Normal university.

ICE AGE STILL RETREATING

Don't rush out and sell your skates, but the ice age is still retreating and no telling how warm it will get—in a few billion years. This is according to A. J. Lambeth, an Australian geologist, back after 14 months of observation on Heard island in the Antarctic where he found evidence that the world is still getting warmer. But perhaps in a billion years the trend will be reversed. The scientists can't give you any accurate figures on that point. They can positively assure you, however, that you won't be caught with your storm windows down. Everybody will have plenty of time to prepare for it. In fact, for the first dozen or so centuries, people will argue as to whether it is really true that the weather is getting colder, just as they are debating today over whether it is getting warmer. We are just telling you what one expert says.

THE DEATH OF FORRESTAL

James Forrestal's suicide in Bethesda, Md., Naval hospital was brought about by a condition officially described as "directly the result of excessive work during the war and postwar years." During this time Mr. Forrestal was secretary of the navy and later defense secretary, the first American to hold the latter position.

Hard working and conscientious, Mr. Forrestal applied great patience as well as outstanding ability to his tasks and it was difficult to imagine him cracking up. That he did so in peacetime after serving his country with distinction during the difficult war years made his death doubly tragic. But the peace brought many aggravating problems of unification besides the tension with Russia and, like many other executives, Mr. Forrestal never learned how to relax. He tried too late.

HOW DO YOU KNOW WHAT THEY WANT?

"No person shall stand in a roadway for the purpose of soliciting a ride from the driver of any private vehicle." That is state law. Pretty plain isn't it?

Despite the law against hitch-hiking, thousands of rides are thumbed along Illinois highways each day. Feeling sorry for pedestrians, drivers slow down and give them a lift. Through their concern for the man on the road, many drivers contribute to violation of a law which was placed on the books for their own protection.

Giving a lift to an unknown hitch-hiker is a noble gesture, but a practice highly dangerous to the driver, as frequent newspaper accounts show. Quite often a pleasant-faced hitch-hiker, with a "respectable" look so disarming to drivers, returns the favor of a lift by bashing his benefactor over the head. It may be money the hitch-hiker is after, or the car. At any rate, the procedure is painful and costly to the trusting motorist who was trying to do someone a good turn. In some instances roadside lifts have resulted in murder with the drivers as victims.

In Greene county this spring an insurance salesman picked up a couple of young fellows who probably looked no different than hundreds of others using their thumbs along the highways. Within a few minutes the self-invited riders took command, forcing the insurance man to drive from the main route to a side road, where they shot him to death. After taking $10 from his pockets they fled, but were captured a few days later after hitchhiking rides with other unsuspecting drivers. The two hitch-hikers are now in Menard penitentiary awaiting execution in the electric chair on Sept. 23.

Two days before sentence was pronounced on these murderers another hitch-hike assault occurred not far from the scene of the insurance man's death. In this case a driver reported that he was slugged into insensibility by a pedestrian he befriended, and was robbed of $75 and his watch. An arrest also has been made in this case, due to clever investigation and hard work of Greene county officers.

Crimes such as these should put Illinois motorists on guard. Each brutal occurrence is an argument against picking up hitch-hikers. Many truck lines and other carriers prohibit their drivers from picking up hikers. Yet private drivers go on taking chances with their lives and property.

How do you know the fellow trying to thumb you down doesn't want to rob you? How do you know that behind a pleasant face he hides a criminal scheme, which might involve your car, your wallet or your life? You can't read a stranger's thoughts or intentions at a glance. After you get him in your car it might be too late. Play safe on the highway by ignoring the signals of strangers. Remember, if they try to thumb a ride they are already breaking the law.

Public Invited To Attend I. S. B. Centennial Celebration

An invitation has been extended to the public to attend the centennial celebration which the Illinois School for the Blind will hold at the school on Wednesday and Thursday, June 1 and 2.

The principal speaker for the occasion will be The Honorable Fred K. Hoehler. His address will be given at the centennial program Thursday at 2:30 p. m., at which time talks will also be presented by Leo J. Flood and the Rev. Gabriel Farrell.

A reception in the main building Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. will mark the beginning of the celebration. A tour of the school and the alumni program are scheduled for Thursday morning.

The closing event will be the centennial pageant, depicting the history of the school. The pageant will be presented by the students on an outdoor stage on the school grounds Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Objective—Same
Throughout the 100 years of its existence, the school has continued to cling to its original objective—helping blind children, or those with defective sight, to become useful, self-reliant, well-balanced citizens.

I.S.B. is world renowned for its devotion to the development of aids for the education of blind children. It has made outstanding contributions in furthering the use of the Braille system and to date, has educated approximately 5,000 blind children, ranging in age from five to 21 years. The annual enrollment is between 200 and 235.

The courses of study at I.S.B. are planned for those who have partial vision, as well as for those who are totally blind. The former are enrolled in sight-saving classes and study special text books with large type. Special lighting also plays an important part in this phase of training. Braille text books are used by the blind students.

Develop Keen Touch
In the kindergarten, the children learn self-care, how to find their way about, increase their vocabulary, develop music and rhythm appreciation and, through sense-perception games and manipulation of material and toys, train their fingers to keener touch sensitivity to prepare themselves for learning Braille.

The grade and high school curriculum are patterned after the standard school program. The four-year high school course prepares the student for college or a career. State-aid scholarships are available to I.S.B. graduates who excel in their academic undertakings. Employment or further vocational training is a matter handled by the state division of vocational rehabilitation.

The students at I.S.B. enjoy a well-rounded program of social and recreational activities. They also attend the church or Sunday school of their respective denomination or choice.

School For Parents
Recognizing the need for such a program, I.S.B. annually holds an institute for mothers of blind preschool children, which enables the parents to help in bringing about the social and emotional development of their children.

The parents are counseled by noted authorities and are given an opportunity to see other blind children at work and at play, to become acquainted with the I.S.B. staff members and to visit the school where their children will be trained.

The school itself, distinguished by its spacious grounds and modern buildings, is located on East State street.

The first school, originally a private enterprise, was located at the McConnell residence on North Main street. This developed into the state school, which was located at Colonel Dunlap's Mansion House on Mount avenue. In 1934, the school moved to its present location.

Pte. Bryce Savage, stationed at Ft. Benning, Ga., is spending a short furlough with his father, Finas Savage, north of Glasgow. Two light spurts of small hailstones fell at Glasgow during the heavy rain about 6 p. m. Wednesday evening, however no damage was done to the local young gardens.

4 Anniversaries Marked At Dinner

Three wedding anniversaries and one birthday were observed at a dinner held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brockhouse, Jr., 602 Hooker street.

Those observing wedding anniversaries were Mr. and Mrs. Pete McDannald of Chapin, 48 years; Mr. and Mrs. William Nunes, three years; and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brockhouse, Jr., two years. Mrs. McDannald was also observing her birthday anniversary.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Lester McDannald and grandchildren, Celia James and Walter Miller, Charles McDannald of Woodson, Mr. and Mrs. Pete McDannald and son, Carlos, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Scott, Kelly Grady, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McDannald and daughter, Phyllis of Chapin, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Glavey, Byron Caywood, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Loughary and daughter, Thelma, of Concord, Mrs. Paul Brockhouse, Sr., Curtis McDannald, Frank Reed, Mr. and Mrs. William Nunes and daughter, Connie Jo and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brockhouse, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Montie McDannald and daughter, Marlene, of Chapin were afternoon guests.

As I understand it, land has been leased for use as a 4-H camp. I think of all the 4-Hers and all the Boy Scouts I have known, I cannot find one reason to think one organization is more desirable than another in any respect, particularly their desirability as bathers in your lake. Perhaps certain members of our City Council have reason to think differently. If they have such thoughts, why don't they produce them?

Why can't our lake be developed as other lakes in the state have? Why can't it be a place we may take visitors to our city, and say with pride that is Lake Jacksonville. See all the improvements. See what has been done through the co-operation of Jacksonville citizens. Why can't we have a lake such as that?

If I were a Boy Scout, I would be pretty well disgusted with the City Council. And Jacksonville, if you find you have trouble with your young people, perhaps it is you don't go half way to meet them and their problems. You only become interested in them AFTER they get into trouble.

From where I stand, it looks as if Jacksonville is missing the boat, and they may end up "swimming" yet, if and when they try to catch the boat other cities have already boarded.

Rayon Towels Are 'Something New' for Beach

New rayon and cotton beach towel makes a generous and super-absorbent wraparound for the swimmer (left). Textured beach mat on which the girl (right) perches is crocheted from a new crimped rayon staple yarn which is thick, soft and quick-drying.

By Kay Sherwood
NEA Staff Writer

Rayon beach towels and mats will be the "something new under the sun" which will compete for attention this summer with cotton terry accessories.

Rayon mixes with cotton to weave a new toweling material which, manufacturers claim, is more absorbent than some all-cotton weaves. These new towels owe their claim to quick-drying to the affinity of viscose rayon fibers for water.

Amplified to give generous coverage, the towels are color-fast and the rayon content adds luster to the surfaces. Matching hand towels and washclothes forecast an indoor life for these newcomers after the swimming season is over.

Thanks to the development of an all-rayon yarn, lustrous new beach mats which are soft and absorbent and boast unusual strength will spread their charms over the sands. The yarn of crimped rayon staple is as thick as a telephone cord and is easily knitted or crocheted by amateur needlewomen into mats, rugs and so on.

Because the fiber is permanently crinkled, rugs won't lose their resilient softness no matter how wet they become nor how often they are washed. The naturally white fiber is vat-dyed in a variety of brilliant colors.

Not to be outdone in brilliance or feats of absorbency are all-cotton terry cloth bath sheets and beach towels. The so-called bath sheet which doubles as an exercise pad or beach towel is nine square feet of thick terry nap. Colors are white or deep-toned to appeal to masculine users.

Rainbow-striped or polka-dotted terry cloth stoles nearly six feet long are intended to add to a fashionable flip to beach towels. Besides offering protection from the sun to beach combers the extra-thick weave of such accessories is designed to blot a swimmer dry in a jiffy.

Marble Donuts Quick Dessert

Marble donuts are an easy party surprise.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Youngsters aren't the only members of the family who will welcome this quick and special dessert:

Marble Donuts

One cup marshmallow whip, 2 tablespoons semi-sweet chocolate pieces, 6 donuts.

Heat marshmallow whip in top of double boiler, stirring constantly until smooth and syrupy. Add chocolate pieces and allow to melt to form marble effect. Top each donut with Marble Sauce.

While we're on the popular American subject of donuts (they used to be called doughnuts—remember?) let's see what else can be done with them.

Donut Floating Island

Place a donut in each dish and pour chilled soft custard around it. Top donut with golden brown meringue. (Make meringue as usual, drop by spoonfuls on baking sheet lined with wax paper. Bake in moderately slow oven (325 degrees F.)

for 15 minutes or until richly browned. Remove from wax paper immediately.)

Chiquita Donut

Mash ripe bananas, add a little milk, and whip. Line bottom of dessert dishes with banana whip, add whole donut, fill donut center and top with more banana whip. Then sprinkle chocolate shavings over the top.

Donut Brown Betty

Slice donuts crosswise and place one-half in the bottom of each dish. Cover with apple sauce and add the other donut half. Fill and top with more apple sauce and garnish with cherry or walnut.

Donut Party Plate

Melt one package chocolate bits with 2 tablespoons vegetable shortening over hot water, blending well. Dip 12 plain, sugared, or cinnamon donuts into chocolate bit mixture deep enough to cover half of each donut. Then dip into bowl of chopped salted peanuts, nonpareil seeds or coconut. Set on waxed paper until chocolate has hardened.

BURGLARS SAY IT WITH FLOWERS

Paris—(AP)—Charles Barrois and Louis Desoeuvre, arrested on burglary charges, were said to have called at expensive apartments, elegantly dressed and bearing a bouquet of flowers. If they found someone at home, they would pretend they were visiting some one else in the building and had knocked at the wrong front door. If the apartment was empty, they broke in and went to work.

CONWAY CASTLE IS FALLING DOWN
Conway, Wales—(AP)—Another of Britain's ancient picturesque links with the past is in danger of tumbling into dust. The Ancient Monuments staff of the Ministry of Works has urged immediate action to save the 700-year-old castle and walls of Conway. The Monument staff described them as "the finest examples in Europe of the medieval fortification engineer's art and practice." Restoration work, however, will require 15 to 20 years' time, the ministry estimated. Water percolating through the walls for years has left them without proper foundations, the ministry said, and unless waterproofing treatment is given soon a sudden major collapse may result.

ISLAND OF ESCAPE

By Hugh Lawrence
Nelson

THE STORY: Bea Cosgrove, unassuming that the death of Lilly Warren on Speare Island was suicide, goes to the underground storeroom in search of signs of blood. Lilly's body was found in a car of the familiar railway running to the store room. Bea is surprised in the storeroom by Miguel Oak, skipper of a fishing boat which earlier brought Bea, Lilly, Mabel Jones and Agnes Firch to the island. Oak had returned secretly to investigate his brother's accidental death on the island. Oak admits to Bea that he is not a fisherman, but a lawyer. Bea shows him a scrubbed spot on the floor of one of the passages in the storeroom. Returning to the home of Henry Gough Harding on the island, Bea finds the owner and master of Speare Island awake.

BEA COSGROVE mumbled something about wanting some air until she saw he was not listening.

"Oh yes, of course," he said absently. Henry Gough Harding stood up. "Come with me. And we must be careful not to disturb Miss Stark." He picked up a candle from the table, led the way into the tower room.

Miss Cosgrove heard a rustle from Mollie's bed. She looked back, saw the girl's eyes were tightly shut.

Bea smiled grimly. Harding had not glanced toward the cot. She followed him through the almost bare second story room with its cot, the case of rifle and a small trunk for clothes. She could not help remembering Lilly Warren. The top room was filled with a modern and highly efficient looking radio transmitter. The next flight of stairs was even steeper, almost a ladder. Harding threw open a trap door, then reached down to light her way into the flat roof of the square tower.

Bea evaded his helping hand, squirmed through the opening by herself.

"I had to talk to someone. I've done a great deal by myself, and now I'm thinking seriously of taking a vital step. Vital for the future of Speare Island. In a way it's different from my plan. I had thought of an older woman."

He sounded so embarrassed. Bea decided to help him out before he retreated into himself and talked no more. "You're speaking of Miss Stark?"

"Why how did you know?" he demanded in surprise.

Miss Cosgrove stifled her first impulse and said, "A woman understands those things." She sounded hammy even to herself, but Harding relaxed.

SHE had to remind herself she was talking to Henry Gough Harding, master of Speare Island, and not a present day teen-ager, but the adolescent of a generation ago when knighthood was in flower.

"I knew you'd understand," Harding said. "From the very first I recognized that quality in you. Look, Miss Cosgrove, you may not believe this. But I really haven't had much actual experience with women. . . . You understand, don't you?"

"I understand," she murmured. "I knew you would. Even though you yourself cannot be worldly."

I had to leave school in the middle of my second year of high school and from then until I was 35 I had to work hard. Mother was a semi-invalid you see. She was so gentle and sweet, and would try to do things for herself so I would have a chance to go out. She insisted once I enter a boxing tournament. I did. The first night I went she fell and hurt herself. I blame myself, but she forgave me. "And after—after she passed away it was difficult for me. I realized fully what I had lost." His voice took on a deeper timbre. "But I had to go on. I had to make something of my life. I owed it to her."

"Then the war and good times came. People changed for the worse. I began to make a little money and the women were so hard and mercenary. My chance came and I took it." His voice was querulous. "I had to take my chance, didn't I? How could I know. . . ." He stopped and began on a new tack.

"But now, I have Speare Island. I will make it a monument to her. A living monument."

"Now I'm going to ask a great favor of you. I feel you will be honest though it may mean an actual sacrifice on your part. Tell me, what do you think about Mollie and me?"

BEA COSGROVE turned toward the white blur of his face, met the demands of the moment with a theatrically outthrust hand. Her voice was low. "You must look into your own heart for the answer."

"I understand," he said somberly. "And thank you for putting truth above your own wishes."

Bea hurried down the steep steps of the tower. In the lower room a candle burned now and its light fell softly across the face of Mollie Stark. She opened her eyes, saw Bea Cosgrove and sneered.

Bea would have enjoyed an old-fashioned hair pull at the moment, but she went to her own room.

Bea went to the window, stared out into darkness that swirled, grew gray, became a picture of the sunswet dockside of so long ago.

In that past she leaned again over the rail of the converted liner and waved to Jim below.

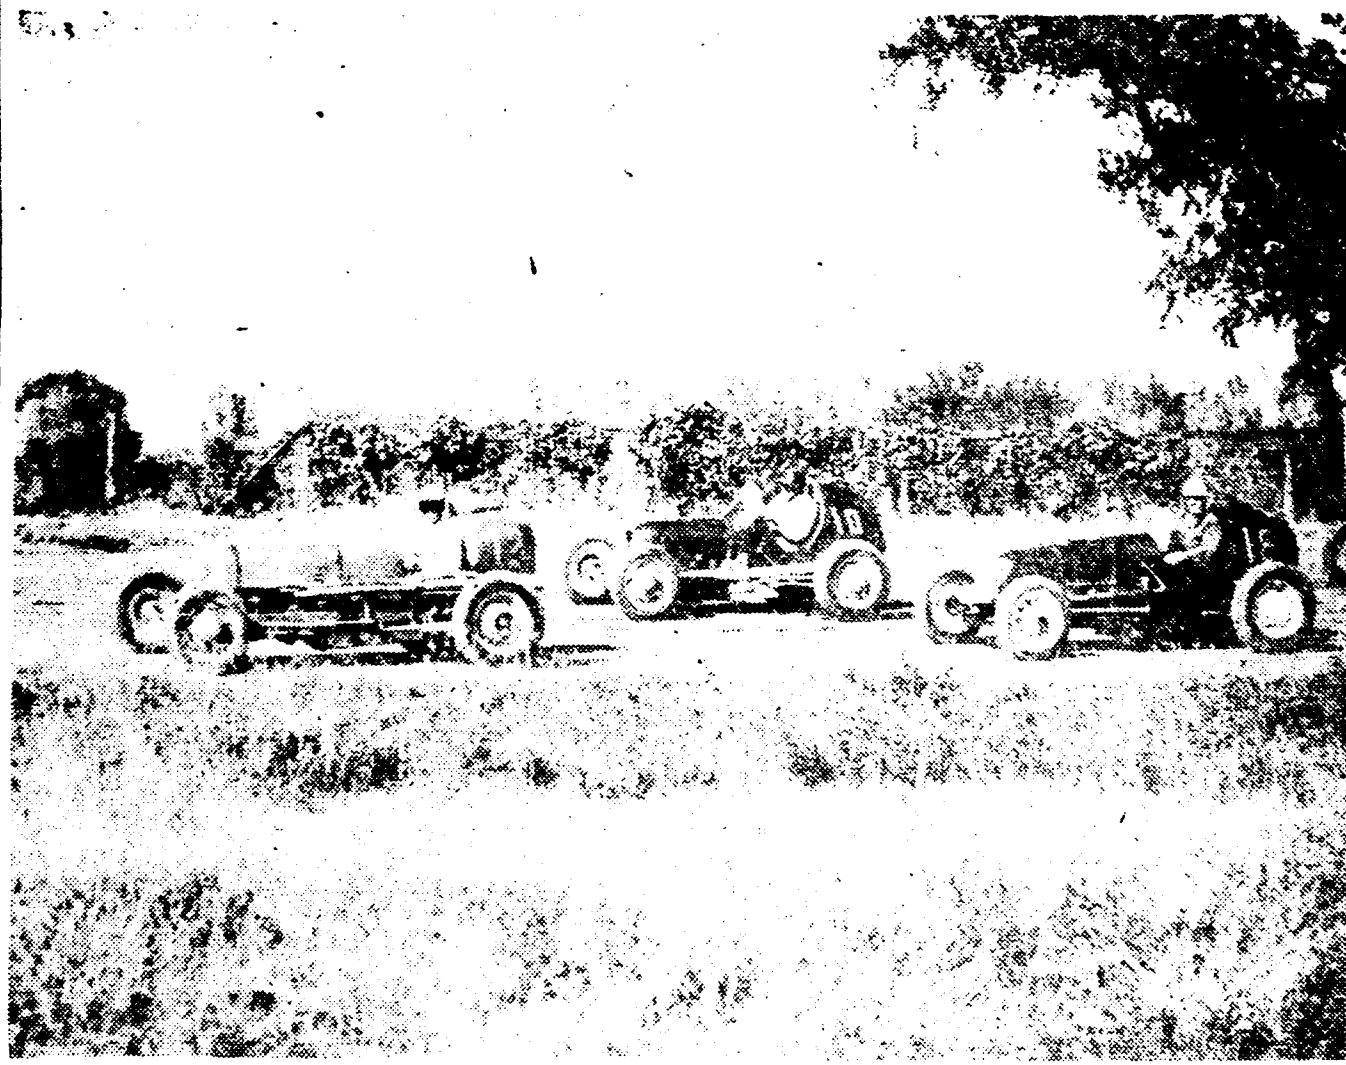

Her last sight of Jim was etched on her mind. She'd been so proud. Jim would get hold of himself when she was no longer there for him to lean on. Many times in loneliness she had called up that picture to reassure herself she had done the right thing. Before she had learned of Jim's death. She had been so sure Jim would learn to know himself as she knew him. She forgave Jim everything but not realizing his true worth. Forgive . . . .

She remembered Harding's tone of voice when he said, "But she forgave me."

Bea shook her head violently. There should be no forgiveness from her for Henry Harding!

Scanlan-Roach Wedding Takes Place Saturday

Vows of marriage were exchanged by Miss Mary Elizabeth Roach and Robert T. Scanlan in a double-ring ceremony which took place Saturday morning at nine o'clock in the Church of Our Saviour.

The bride is the daughter of Robert Roach, 729 North Main street. Mr. Scanlan is the son of Mrs. Helen Scanlan, 914 Beesley avenue.

The wedding rites were performed by the Rev. Father John Morris, who was also celebrant of the nuptial Mass which followed. Serving as acolytes were Richard Scanlan and Donald Wagner. Music was furnished by Mrs. Alta Eisch, church organist.

Miss Helen Scanlan, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor. The bridesmaid was Miss Jean Little. Acting as best man was the bridegroom's brother, James Scanlan. James Roach, the bride's brother, was bridegroom, and Joe Sullivan and Francis Little were the ushers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown of heavy white satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice and Bertha neckline. The full satin skirt, accented with panels of marquisette, was made en train.

Her fingertip veil was of marquisette, bordered with lace and secured to a pearlized tiara. The bridal bouquet was of white roses and carnations.

Pink and blue gowns were worn by the maid of honor and bridesmaid, respectively. They wore matching veils of shoulder length marquisette and carried bouquets of white roses and carnations.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Rodems, 134 Howe street, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom.

The serving was done by Miss Gracie Cook and Mrs. Joe Sullivan. As the couple left on their wedding trip, the bride was wearing a navy blue polka dot dress, with white accessories. Upon returning, they will reside at 840 Grove street.

PARIS—(NEA)—Orange linen, which takes its color cue from the sun, will go down to the seas from Paris this summer.

Orange linen, for example, makes the duster-styled beach coat (center) which tops a swim suit of orange-and-green of Jacques Fath's design. The striped linen makes cuffs for the coat and a big sun-shade hat.

The military-styled blouse (right) is of orange linen which picks up one of the vibrant shades of the multicolor-striped slacks with which it is worn. The strapless "sun bra" (left) with "pirate pants" is made of orange linen. The pirate pants, Jacques Fath's new idea in beach shorts, feature a batik-print of orange, green and navy blue linen.

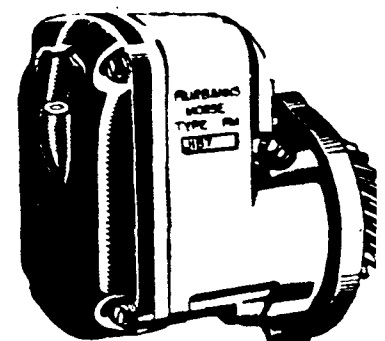

An atomic clock, which tells time by the movements of atoms in molecules of ammonia, has been demonstrated by scientists. First clock independent of astronomical calculations, the new instrument gets away from using the rotation of the earth on its axis as it revolves about the sun.

Newest scientific advance in telephoning is a better phone booth. The new booth features a ceiling ventilator, concentrated lighting, the phone and writing shelf, and a tougher rubber floor.

Several Foreign Attractions To Be Circus Features

There will be a distinct international flavor to the Jaycee Circus in Jacksonville June 6, W. G. Ranson, chairman of the circus committee, announced Saturday.

Notice has been received from Jack Mills, manager of Mills Bros., America's largest motorized circus, which the Jaycees are sponsoring here to raise funds for their community welfare fund, that several new foreign acts are featured in the 1949 show.

Beauty is stressed in one of these imported troupes, the celebrated Wallabies, girl acrobats from England. Others are a team of continental aerial balancing favorites the Valencianos, Les Rosettis, French revolving ladder artists, and the Danish Cathaps, rolling globe precisionists.

These importations, American arena stars and other stars of foreign extraction feature the Jaycee Circus Champions of all Nations assemblage. Ray Goody, American tight wire speed sensation, Helen Huntley, only girl in the nation to be carried by the head in the jaws of a huge elephant, three rings of dancing horses in an equine revue, George Cook and his comedy car, wire walking dogs and many other attractions round out the show.

The Jaycee Circus is here for one day only, Monday, June 6, at 2 and 8 p. m., at the Hempel show grounds.

Declares MacMurray Endowment Should Be Doubled In 10 Years

"If we believe in private business we should believe in private colleges," said Dr. C. P. McClelland, president of MacMurray College, while addressing the annual meeting of the board of trustees Saturday. Dr. McClelland said he questions the advisability of extending federal aid to institutions of higher learning either public or private. He urged that the endowment fund of MacMurray be doubled in the next 10 years.

The resignations of Dr. Albert A. Dollear and Troy A. Chapin from the board of trustees were announced by the president in his annual report. "Both have been members of the board for a long period of years and have been of great help in the conduct of our business affairs," Dr. McClelland said.

He also paid tribute to the late Harry M. Andre, a member of the board 28 years. "He was always loyal and ready to cooperate with the friends of MacMurray in furthering its development," the report said.

A large part of President McClelland's report was given to a discussion of "What's Ahead in Higher Education." He emphasized particularly enrollments, finances, and curricula. He predicted that most colleges can look for a decline in enrollments until 1954 and that it would probably take until 1958 for the enrollments to reach the high points of 1947.

Speaking of costs, he gave figures showing how the cost of education on every level had been increasing. He said he doubted whether the significance of the enormous amounts which it has been proposed should be drawn from tax sources for public institutions of learning had been realized by taxpayers.

Questions Federal Aid

"As trustees of MacMurray College, we should all make up our minds regarding the advisability of federal aid to higher education. As I see it now, I am not sure that I would give approval to federal aid to public elementary and high schools, and I question seriously the advisability of extending federal aid to higher institutions of learning either public or private. I doubt very much whether our system of higher education should be expanded to accommodate within the near future as many as 4,500,000 college and university students. I think it is questionable whether 40% of the young people of college age are intellectually qualified for college or university work that anywhere near meets the standards which the better colleges are trying to maintain; furthermore, I believe there is a distinct danger in encouraging our young people to believe that our national economy will provide jobs for nearly 1,000,000 college graduates each year who, of course, will expect to enter the professions or business.

"In times of financial crisis it is the frustrated college and university graduates who become revolutionary leaders. In our country we have not yet had enough of these or deep enough depressions to cause serious trouble, but let us not delude ourselves into thinking it could not happen here. Moreover, federal control is practically certain to result from federal support. Such control may be very small at first, but, once established, it is likely to increase rapidly and never totally abandoned.

Test of Free Enterprise

"This whole matter is related to the question of whether our free American enterprise is to continue. If we believe in private business we should believe in private colleges.

"As those vitally interested in the future development of MacMurray College, we cannot help asking whether it will be possible for private institutions to compete with the public institutions as greater and greater financial resources are made available to the latter. At the present time, as I have indicated, state legislatures are appropriating many millions of dollars more for the state institutions than formerly, both for operating expenses and for buildings, and in Washington there are powerful influences at work in advocacy of federal aid for the same purposes. Whether our college and others like us will receive federal state aid in the future is doubtful. We must, therefore, be on the alert to secure funds, particularly for endowment, during the years immediately before us. It is nonsense to suppose that our present endowment is adequate. It should be doubled within the next decade, and we should make plans now to provide for this development."

Hungry India Faces Growing Food Deficit

By Marc Purdue

New Delhi (AP)—How can a nation thrive if it cannot feed all its people? In the second year of her independence, India finds this question looming ever larger.

Agriculture Minister Jai Ramdas Daulatram put it bluntly to the legislative assembly recently: "Unless the agricultural wealth increases, there is no foundation for further progress."

The problem of feeding India's millions is at least several generations old and plagued the British during the greater part of their reign over the subcontinent. It became more acute during the war years when normal imports from neighbors such as Burma and Siam were cut off. The Bengal famine of 1943 was the tragic climax of these years. Postwar food deficits in normally self-sufficient areas have been hard on a normally deficit country like India.

Last year, India spent one-third of her total foreign exchange on food imports. The money could have been better spent on capital goods to be used in land reclamation, transport and power development and industrial improvements. But there were too many mouths to be fed first.

Clifford C. Taylor, agricultural attaché of the American embassy in New Delhi, who summed up the situation in reporting, "the soil is less fertile than the people," give this explanation of India's agricultural poverty:

"Nitrogen, phosphate and organic matter are generally deficient. Rainfall in most regions is negligible, most of the year and, in the northwest, practically all the year. Irrigation has been practiced to an increasing extent in the past half-century, but there still is not nearly enough."

"Improved seed has yet to gain general adoption. Much scientific research has been and is being done in India, but illiteracy and prejudice impose a wide gap between knowledge and practice."

In 1945-46, the population of India was 339,000,000. It now is estimated to be 350,000,000, an increase of 11,000,000 in three years. At this rate—an increase of about 1 per cent yearly—the population in 1963 will be about 407,000,000.

Experts consider that an ordinary adult in India requires about one pound of cereals daily for an adequate diet. If India were to give that ration to its present population, it would have to import 5,300,000 tons of grain this year. If domestic production is not increased, it would have to import 12,600,000 tons in 1963 in order to meet the demands of such a ration.

Creation of Pakistan gave the new Indian Union 79 per cent of the old India's population but only 72 or 73 per cent of the old India's wheat and rice areas, and four-fifths of the country's cultivatable land is in food grains.

Steel production now is lower than before the war in India, seriously limiting the manufacture of farm implements.

Departure of the British civil servants has brought a serious shortage of technically trained manpower to devise and direct irrigation schemes.

Tenant farmers have been reluctant to increase production because they believed it would provoke an increase in the rents they pay. Large landowners, faced in many provinces with the prospect of having their lands taken by the government for redistribution among the cultivators in various reform schemes, have not been enthusiastic about cooperating.

There is now no sign of India's postwar inflation diminishing. Prices of consumer goods are astronomical compared to prewar years. This catches the government in an economic squirrel cage.

Human bones can withstand a compressive stress of 23,000 pounds per square inch. That means they are one-fourth as strong as cast iron and twice as strong as hickory wood. It means people are tougher than we ordinarily think.

The Philadelphia Phillies have gone the longest without a major league pennant of any of the big league teams; they last won in 1915.

Greenfield FFA Names Delegates To State Meet

Greenfield — Phillip Hobson and Gale Cole have been selected to represent the Greenfield chapter of the Future Farmers of America at the state convention to be held at the University of Illinois in June.

The new officers for the F.F.A. are Russell Finney, Jr., president; Gale Cole, vice president; Phillip Hobson, secretary; Gerald Ross, treasurer; David Cole, reporter; Eugene Hobson, sentinel; and Russell Kinser, program chairman.

Miss Norma Dixon was crowned queen at the annual style show presented Thursday evening by the members of the home making classes of the Greenfield High school, under the direction of the teacher, Mrs. Robert Ford. The attendants were Wanda Nettles, Joan Huff, Mary Finney and Marjorie Good.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marsh of Alton, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Allen of St. Louis and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Overby of Kirkwood, Mo., attended the alumni banquet Thursday evening. Mrs. J. W. Bradford of Moline is visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Burnham, Jr.

Greenfield Bank Presents Awards To Two Seniors

Greenfield—The Greenfield Farmers' State Bank presented cash awards to Miss Norma Lee Dixon and Donald Masters, the outstanding seniors in home economics and agriculture.

The two were selected by committees of underclassmen, with the instructors acting as advisers. The awards were granted on the basis of scholarship, project work and leadership activities.

The largest crowd that ever attended an alumni banquet and dance was present at the event Thursday evening. The banquet was served by the ladies of the Baptist church. Music was by Boots Brennan and his orchestra.

The officers for 1950 are Warren Cook, president; Robert Kinser, vice president; and Mrs. Willette Kesinger, secretary-treasurer. Howard Houlette is the retiring president. Richard Wilhite, commander of the Greenfield American Legion, Fitzsimmons post 225, presented the Legion awards to Opal Schild and Edward Marshall at the grade school commencement.

Army chemists claim to have produced the biggest lead chloride crystal ever grown by man. It is more than an inch and one-third long and nearly an inch thick. It was produced in a furnace used for growing rare crystals for high precision equipment.

BEING MAYOR IS FAMILY AFFAIR

Hudson, Kas. (AP)—There's never been a big turnover in Hudson city officials. The community, population 225, has a new mayor for the first time in 24 years.

William Krug, who had served continuously since his first election in 1925, had been saying he believed he had held the office long enough. And this spring he said definitely he would not be a candidate. So Hudson elected Krug's son-in-law, Leonard Brim.

Hudson was incorporated as a city in July, 1908, and the office of mayor has nearly always been in the Krug family. Gustav Krug, father of William, served as mayor from 1913 until his death in 1920.

School Buildings To Be Auctioned In 3 Counties

One of the largest sales of surplus school buildings in Central Illinois will be conducted in Morgan, Cass, and Scott counties on June 1, June 2, and June 3 when 22 buildings will be sold at public auction.

The calling of the sales by the various school trustees was approved by the voters in an election within Community Unit School District No. 27 recently.

Along with the buildings and most of the sites, all other surplus properties will be offered.

Considerable interest has been shown by many prospective buyers over the possibility of using such buildings for residential purposes.

Income from the sales will be used in improving the permanent school buildings and in erecting two temporary structures in Chapin and Arenzville.

Next year there will be only three rural schools in operation in District No. 27, two of which are in Cass county and one in Morgan county.

Furniture which comes packaged in cartons, designed to be assembled and finished at home, is available for the homemaker who likes to wield a hammer. All necessary pieces are furnished.

Jay-Cee Girls Whip Decatur Femmes 11-2; Play Again Tonight

The Jay-Cee girls' softball club came back home with a bang last night when they romped over the Decatur Jarvis girls 11 to 2 in the feature performance at Jacksonville's southside park.

The Squires downed Stoners Restaurant 13 to 3 in a preliminary junior contest that was called at the end of five innings because of the 10-run rule.

Bert Leuder, Jay-Cee hurler was in fine form as she led the Jacksonville girls to their fourth win in five starts this season. The righthander allowed only 5 Decatur hits and kept those few safeties well scattered. The visitors tallied once each in the second and seventh innings.

The Jay-Cee nine pitched six runs across the platter in the second inning to go into a lead which they never relinquished. The locals added a pair of tallies in the fourth and fifth frames and scored a single time in the sixth to culminate their offensive efforts.

Slugging honors for the evening went to Jay-Cee second baseman Schneider who slammed an inside the park home with catcher "Fid" Phillips on deck on the fourth chapter.

The girls are scheduled to play in the preliminary this evening. They'll meet the Granite City El-Bee Fours in a game slated for 7:15 p.m.

The Jacksonville Moose softballers are lined up for the feature bout with the Springfield South Sixth Street Merchants. That game will get underway at 8:45 p.m.

Reds Get 2 Runs In Top Of 11th, Defeat Cubs 2-0

Chicago, May 28.—(P)—Ken Raffensberger outduelled Dutch Leonard here today and the Cincinnati Reds captured an 11-inning battle, 2 to 0, to snap a three-game winning streak of the revived Chicago Cubs.

Raffensberger launched the decisive rally with a single and was followed by Grady Hatton. However, a vital flyball singled and Lloyd McGowan followed with a double to center that chased Hatton home.

After an intentional pass, Leonard struck Jimmy Bloodworth in the arm with a pitched ball to force in the second run.

The veteran lefty thereby registered his sixth victory and his fourth shutout of the season. The last two shutouts have come in succession and Raffensberger now has a string of 20 scoreless innings. He scattered seven hits and only one man ever reached third on him.

The defeat was Leonard's fifth in seven starts. He has won only one.

Sam McCready Wins British Amateur Golf Meet From Turnesa

Portmarnock, Ireland, May 28.—(P)—Sam McCready, a real fighting Irishman, won the British amateur golf championship today on his first try.

He capped a morning round of 70 with a blazing stretch finish to beat United States champion Willie Turnesa, 2 and 1, in the 36-hole final.

Irish eyes were smiling as McCready, a 31-year-old Ulsterman, rolled in a three-foot putt and won the crown on the 35th green.

Then the 4,000 fans who had trailed doggedly for six hours round the desolate Portmarnock links swallowed up their hero in a stampede on the green.

Aside from partisanship, they had sound cause for their enthusiasm. McCready's great triumph ended a two-year American squeeze on the British title.

Turnesa, of Elmsford, N. Y., won it in 1947. Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, took the big cup home last year.

And Sam, a grinning, tubby figure did it the hard way. He frittered away a four up lead which he held at 18 holes, and got himself behind the eight ball.

He went out in 42 on the first nine holes after lunch, and Turnesa, heaving level fours, got back his full round's losses in half a round. He squared at the 27th.

A storm broke on the 29th. McCready missed a three-foot putt and dropped one hole behind.

But McCready wasn't finished. When Turnesa, who had been game-ly putting up one of the greatest golfing fights of his life, opened the door on the 31st hole, the Irishman moved in.

It was 557 yards from tee to green. And when Turnesa got there he three-putted and carded a seven.

A bold downhill putt in the driving rain dropped for Turnesa on the 32nd and he regained the lead.

But it was his last winner.

He slipped over par on two holes in a row and McCready won them both to go ahead.

Graduating Class Of MacMurray To Hear Cong. Walter H. Judd

Addressing MacMurray College graduates Sunday will be the Honorable Walter H. Judd, member of Congress from the Fifth District, Minneapolis, Minn., who will speak at the commencement exercises held on the college athletic field at 5 p. m. CST.

Dr. Judd's career is entirely in the American tradition. Born in the small Nebraska town of Rising City, he worked on the farm every summer until he went to college and then worked his way through the University of Nebraska and the Medical School, doing all sorts of jobs from dish washing to managing a cafeteria, from operating a night telephone in a hospital to playing in a band on chautauqua circuits and teaching zoology in the University of Omaha. He left college to enter the army as a private in World War I and was discharged as a lieutenant in the Field Artillery.

From 1925 to 1931 he served his first hitch as a medical missionary in South China, organizing a 35 bed hospital there. After taking two years out for post graduate surgery at the Mayo clinic in Rochester, Minn., he returned to North China this time, where for four years he was superintendent of a 125-bed hospital. He and his staff brought this institution through a Communist revolution and the Japanese invasion, and at the same time improved its work so that it became 83% instead of 33% self-supporting.

When Japan's armies moved into China, Dr. Judd saw things which made him feel it imperative that we stop building up Japan's war machine. He came home to carry that message to more than 1400 audiences in 46 states. In Jan. 1941 he took up the practice of medicine in Minneapolis. After Pearl Harbor, at the urging of many individuals and groups, he became a candidate for Congress to which he was elected in 1942 and re-elected in 1946 and 1948. Dr. Judd's interest in and knowledge of American foreign relations, especially in the Pacific area, has made him a valuable member of the Congressional Committee on Foreign Affairs. He was also a member of a committee which made extensive investigations and studies in Europe and Asia in the fall of 1947.

Scenes At The Mac Mounties Spring Horse Show

Many Jacksonville residents and commencement visitors attended the annual spring horse show sponsored Saturday morning and afternoon by the Mac Mounties, MacMurray College's saddle club.

The weather was just right for the occasion and the spectators applauded the skill by the riders. The MacMurray swing band provided the music for both shows.

The rules provide that the ringmaster and judge remain at least 10 feet apart during the showing of individual classes, but Ringmaster Harold Leonard and Judge Miss Anne LaMonte of St. Louis, Mo., agreed to violate the rules for the benefit of the photographer.

The second photo shows the team of four exhibition as the four riders rounded to enter the stretch on the south side of the track. The riders and horses, left to right, are: Barbara Sutter of Pittsfield on Chesterfield; Charlotte Erb of Wauwatosa, Wis., on Secret; Betty Butler of Ripon, Wis., on Lady Moon, and Dorothy Goebel of Jacksonville on Chief.

Miss Velma R. Snyder, riding instructor, is shown with Donald Splain of Lincoln announcer for the day, and Miss Goebel, club president in charge of the show.

Mrs. Clarence Quintal drove Clar Quin Sue in a fine harness demonstration.

Lloyd E. Clement Dies At Concord; Services Monday

Lloyd E. Clement, a resident of Concord for the past 25 years, died Saturday at 9 a. m. at his home, following an illness of one year. He had recently returned from the hospital.

Mr. Clement was born in Perry on Jan. 13, 1889, the son of Ward and Medora Doane Clement. His marriage to Bessie Smith took place at Concord on Feb. 11, 1911.

His wife survives, together with five children, Lottie Lois Braydon, Marjorie Deichman and William E. Clement, all of Houston, Texas; Ruth Clement of Washington, D. C.; Ward Clement at home, and three grandchildren.

One brother, Ernest, and a half-brother, Arthur, preceded him in death.

He was actively engaged in carpentry until illness forced his retirement about a year ago. He was a member of the Congregational church at Griggsville and of the Masonic order at Perry.

The body is at the Williamson Funeral Home but will be at the residence after 11:30 Sunday morning.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday afternoon at 2:30 at the Methodist church in Concord, with the Rev. Robert Pitch officiating.

G. L. Davidson, Former White Hall Resident, Dies

White Hall—Word has been received here of the sudden death of Grover L. Davidson, former resident, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Glenn Mattison, Salem, Ore.

Mr. Davidson resided in White Hall until 1914, when he moved to Oregon to make his home.

He is survived by his wife, four children, Paul, Richard, Bernice and Ruth, all of Salem; and two brothers, Miner of Wilmette and Carl M. of White Hall.

Two sisters, Mrs. Roy Barnes and Mrs. Walter Sheppard, preceded him in death.

Funeral services and interment were in Salem on May 26.

MUCH IMPROVED. Thomas Gollmer, who has been ill since November, returned Friday to his home, 1056 N. Fayette avenue, for a short visit. Much improved, Mr. Gollmer expects release from Jefferson Barracks hospital early in June.

An extraordinarily light turnout, 472 voters in the four Jacksonville wards, characterized Saturday's balloting on the question as to whether the city should float a $27,000 bond issue to repair the causeway at Nickols Park.

The vote was Ycs. 305; No, 167. The proposition carried in the first, second and fourth wards, but lost by a six vote margin in the third ward. The fourth ward gave the measure considerable support, casting 144 votes in favor of the bond issue and only 41 votes against the proposition.

The polls opened in the four ward schools at 6 a. m. and closed at 5 p. m. Due to the light vote tabulations were received by the office of City Clerk John R. Phillips soon after the polls closed.

The causeway over the lake was closed to traffic slightly more than a year ago when it settled, cutting off direct access to the picnic area and playgrounds.

The unofficial vote by wards:

First	Yes	No
First	43	23
Second	71	44
Third	47	55
Fourth	144	41
Totals	305	167

Amnesia Victim Found By Police

Clarence Last, 50 year old farmer from Ridott, Stephenson county, Ill., was found wandering around the automobile district of South Main street late Saturday afternoon. An apparent amnesia victim, Last could not tell police officers either his name or his address. He was taken to the city jail. Dr. T. O. Hardesty examined the victim, who showed no signs of drinking. The county physician said the man was suffering from the results of a cerebral injury of some standing.

Acting on information revealed by his driver's license, Jacksonville police contacted Mrs. Last in Ridott. The family will call for him sometime Sunday. Mrs. Last said her husband has suffered recurrent attacks of amnesia.

His 1947 Ford sedan was found parked in front of the LaCrosse Lumber company.

Busy Day For Alumnae Of MacMurray College

Events crowded Saturday's MacMurray College schedule planned for the association, and Valera Berry, alumnae, parents of graduates, and other visitors here for commencement.

The morning's program included the horse show and meetings of the board of trustees and the Alumnae council.

Four hundred attended the Alumnae Candle Lighting luncheon, about 260 of whom were alumnae attending class reunions. Mrs. Frances Blackburn Campbell of Tuscola represented the class of 1899, and the largest single class attending was that of 1939, with 40 members attending. Those from the greatest distances came from Portland, Oregon, Los Angeles, and Charlottesville, Va.

Mrs. Louise Gates Eddy, president of the Alumnae association, presided over the short business meeting.

New officers elected were Jessie Clark Schirring and Grace Fitch; trustees: Alice Helen Wright Lukeman and Alice Alexander Thuermer; directors: Miss Amelia DeMotte, Mrs. O. F. Galloway, sponsor of the class of 1949, presented the class to the association, and Valera Berry, senior president, responded. Dr. McClelland for the College and Mrs. James MacMurray for the trustees made a few remarks, after which Miss Grace Pitch, program chairman, introduced those performing.

Chief speaker of the occasion was Mrs. Eddy, who gave a talk entitled "Through Western Eyes," in which she presented generalizations on Oriental affairs drawn from observations made during her travels in the Far East since September.

The luncheon ended with the candle lighting toast given by Mrs. Helen Webb Filton.

Group singing was led by Barbara Dixon and Margaret Harvey juniors.

Members from the Jacksonville society responsible for the decorations were Mrs. Howard Corey, Miss Jeanette Powell, Mrs. Ray Templin, Mrs. Clarence Rataichak and Mrs. Rose Ranson.

From five to seven, President and Mrs. McClelland entertained at a reception. Visitors first made a tour of Kathryn Hall, after which they were served refreshments in McClelland Hall.

Alumnae and parents were entertained at a performance of Tennessee Williams' play, "The Glass Menagerie," at the College Theatre at 8 p. m., and seniors and their escorts danced at the May Queen's Ball from 8:30 to 12 in McClelland Hall.

Murrayville Man Hurt In Collision

Clyde Pahlman, 32 year old Murrayville farmer, was brought to Passavant hospital in an unconscious condition Saturday night after an automobile collision which occurred on a gravel road about three miles west of Woodson, near Coulson's corner.

Pahlman, driving a 1947 Chevrolet, was driving east when his car collided head-on with a 1937 Chrysler driven by James Traver, Jr., 18, of rural route 5, Jacksonville.

The front ends of both cars were badly damaged. Traver received a small cut over the eye and a knee injury.
